Indigenous Perspectives on Sacred Natural Sites

Culture, Governance and Conservation

Edited by Jonathan Liljeblad, University of New England, Australia and Bas Verschuuren, Wageningen University, Netherlands

Much previous literature on sacred natural sites has been written from a non-indigenous perspective. In contrast, this book facilitates a greater self-expression of indigenous perspectives regarding treatment of the sacred and its protection and governance in the face of threats from various forms of natural resource exploitation and development. It is aimed at students of indigenous studies, anthropology, religion, heritage, human rights and law, nature conservation and environmental protection.
